- Inventory control: the inventory control user is responsible for managing the organization's inventory of vaccines. This person may use NCIR to view the organization's inventory, add vaccines, update vaccines, view inventory transactions, submit inventory counts and view inventory reports, including the vaccine accountability statement. The inventory control user has access to the functions available to typical and reports only users.

- Reports Only: The Reports Only user has access to client query information and may print client-specific reports. This user may not edit or update information in the Registry.
